IN THE INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL-CUM-LABOUR COURT GOVERNMENT OF GOA, DAMAN AND DIU AT PANAJI-GOA

(Before Dr. Renato de Noronha, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Reference No.: IT/20/83

Shri Vijay Canta S. Naik — Workman/Party I
V/s.
M/s. O'Heraldo — Employer/Party II

Application No.: LCC/12/83

Shri Vijay Canta S. Naik — Applicant
V/s.
M/s. O'Heraldo — Opponent

Workman/Applicant represented by Adv. A. Nigalye.

Employer/Opponent represented by Adv. G. K. Sardessai.

Panaji, Dated: 8-11-1985.

AWARD

This common award shall dispose off the 2 preliminary issues framed in both the files concerning Party I/Applicant being a 'workman' within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the I.D.A., 1947, in short the Act. The onus of proof has been put on both the parties.

2. The two issues were framed on the basis of the allegations made by the Employer/Party II in its written statement, that Party I/Applicant, was employed as a foreman in a supervisory capacity and was drawing wages of more than Rs. 500/- per month and, therefore, he could not invoke the provisions of the Act for redressal of the grievances as he was not a 'Workman' within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the Act.

3. The reply of Party I/Applicant to this allegation of the Employer/Party II was that this issue against the jurisdiction was raised by Party I/Applicant for the first time and it was an after thought. The reference was made by the Government on a joint application of both the parties and so the employer/party II was now stopped from raising the issue of jurisdiction.

4. On the above 2 preliminary issues, Party I/Applicant led his own evidence and of one Suresh Kankonkar, whilst the employer/Party II led the evidence of one of its partners, Shri Joao Fernandes.

5. Party I/Applicant, in his statement before the Tribunal, has stated: That his job as Foreman was to distribute material to compositors and, after completion of the composed material, to inform the employer of the same. He was also doing the work of paging the composed material and after doing this work, he was doing the work of composing. He was not doing the work of supervising the other workers of the employer. The work of supervision was done by the employer, the editor and the manager.

In his cross: He has denied that he used to distribute the work as per his discretion in the beginning of the shift and added that such distribution was done by him as per the instructions of the employer. He has further denied that his duties were of supervising the work of compositors and other lower categories, to find out whether the work is completed, as required; he has stated that he used to give only the message to the owner about the completion of the work.

6. Suresh Kankonkar is the applicant/Party I's witness. He has stated that he was the President of the Union and the applicant was the General Secretary. At least once a week, the witness used to go to the composing section of O'Heraldo to contact the applicant. On such occasion, he saw the applicant composing the material and paging the composed material. He never saw him giving orders or directions to the other employees.

In his cross: He knows that there was a difference of about Rs. 100/- in the salary of the applicant and of the other compositors. The link between the other workers and the editor is the foreman. The foreman collects the material from the editor and sub-editor and distributes to the compositors. He also has to do the work of the compositor. The Foreman sees whether the composing work is done properly and if it is not done properly, he directs in what way it is to be done or the foreman himself does it. The composed material then goes to the proof reader to point out the mistakes. The foreman is the head of the composing section. After the distribution of work, during the remaining time, the foreman does the work of the compositor. The time taken by the foreman for doing the work of compositor is slightly less than the work done by other compositors.

7. The employer/Party II, Joao Fernandes, in his statement before the Tribunal, has stated that the applicant after working for quite sometime as compositor was promoted as a foreman after looking at his supervisory abilities, i.e. his capacity to get work done from other workmen. Besides, the foreman who is the head of the composing section, there are compositors, distributors and helpers in the said section. At the beginning of each shift, the editorial section sends the material to the foreman and the foreman distributes the work to the concerned workers. When the work is not properly done, the foreman issues memos or oral warning to the employees. In the composing section, the foreman is fully responsible for the work being carried out in the composing section. The foreman recommends leave of the compositors and helpers; the difference in the salary of the foreman and compositors being approx. Rs. 100/-.

In his cross: He has stated that the foreman is not bound to do the composing work himself but he has to get the work done. He has also denied the suggestion put to him contradicting the statement made by the witness in his examination-in-chief.

8. Before entering into the appreciation of the above evidence, let us consider the objections raised by Party I/Applicant. It is his case that since the matter has been referred by the Government on a joint application of both the parties, the employer/party II would be estopped from raising the issue of jurisdiction. But it is not so. Jurisdiction cannot be conferred by consent of the parties. If the court has no jurisdiction as per law, no consent of the parties can give such jurisdiction. We have to see, therefore, whether, under the law, this Court has or not jurisdiction to entertain this dispute.

9. Under Section 2(s) (iv) of the Act, those who are employed in a supervisory capacity and drawing pay of more than Rs. 500/- per month are excluded from the definition of 'Workman' given by Section 2(s).

Shri O. P. Malhotra at page 511 of his book "The Law of Industrial Disputes" Volume I 3rd edition writes as follows:

"Ordinarily a supervisor or an officer occupies a position of command or is authorised to take independent decisions and is authorised to act in certain matters within the limits of his authority without the sanction of his superior".

From the evidence given by the employer and by Party I/Applicant's witness Suresh Kankonkar, it is obvious that Party I/Applicant, who is the head of the composing section, was collecting the material from the editor or sub editor and distributing it to the compositors, as per his discretion; he had to see whether the composing work was properly done by the compositors and, if it was done properly, he had to direct them in what way it was to be done. There is nothing to show that, while giving such direction, Party I/Applicant had to seek instructions from others. So, such decision was taken by Party I/Applicant within the limits of his authority without the sanction of his superiors and since his pay at the time of termination was admittedly more than Rs. 500/- per month, he undoubtedly comes within the purview of Section 2(s) (iv) of the Act and is not a 'Workman' within the meaning of Section 2(s). If he is not a 'Workman' the industrial dispute referred by the Government is not an industrial dispute under the Act and, therefore, this Tribunal/Court has no jurisdiction to deal with this reference as well as with the application.

10. In view of the above, I pass the following order:

ORDER

This Tribunal/Court has no jurisdiction to entertain the above reference as well as the above application as Party I/

/Applicant is not a 'Workman' within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the Act and, hence, there is no industrial dispute which can be referred to this Tribunal/Court for adjudication. The reference and the application are, therefore, dismissed for want of jurisdiction. Each party to bear its own costs.

Dr. Renato de Noronha
Presiding Officer
